A rescue dog MAY have experienced an unfortunate history of one or more of the following: neglect, abuse, abandonment, loneliness, insecurity, distrust. A period of adjustment (days for some, weeks for some) should be expected in some instances. Often the new dog is so grateful and overwhelmed with your show of love, devotion and consistency that she/he relaxes immediately and opens her/his heart to you. In either case, a rescue dog is almost always grateful, loyal, very affectionate, eager to please and very companionable.

Western Aussie Rescue asks for a rescue donation of $300 to help cover the costs of spay/neuter, vaccinations, heartworm test, microchip ID, and other office, foster and transport costs we incur. Submission of your application does not guarantee placement of a dog. Applicants must agree to a home visit if asked for one. The rescue donation is due at the time of placement.

I understand that any misrepresentation of fact may result in the removal of the placed dog from my home. I understand that Western Aussie Rescue is not responsible for the accuracy of information received about the temperament habits or physical condition of dogs available for adoption. Wyoming Aussie Rescue is neither liable nor responsible for any damage, injury or accident resulting from the placement of this dog.

I will accept the responsibilities for the health, housing, feeding, training and companionship of this dog.
